

Supplemental Figure A. The allometric relationship between seed mass (in mg) and seed count. $\text{Log}_{10}(\text{mass}) = -0.9915 + 0.7749 \text{ Log}_{10}(\text{count})$. Since the slope < 1 , individual seed mass declines as seed number per flower increases. $n = 324$ (both types of flowers combined).