

Supplementary Figure 1. Bars represent means of three biological replicates (n=3) with displayed standard error (line). The letters “a” and “b” display significant differences between mean values ( $p < 0.05$ ; t-test for two independent samples).