In the published article, there was an error in the Funding statement. The authors would like to clarify that due to a misunderstanding with the funder, an incorrect funding statement was published. The issue has been resolved and the research no longer receives any additional support. The previous Funding statement read: “The author(s) declare financial support was received for the research, authorship, and/or publication of this article. This article is based upon work from COST Action 19130 Fintech and Artificial Intelligence in Finance, supported by COST (European Cooperation in Science and Technology) www.cost.eu.”

The correct Funding statement appears below.

Funding

The author(s) declare that no financial support was received for the research, authorship, and/or publication of this article.

The authors apologize for this error and state that this does not change the scientific conclusions of the article in any way. The original article has been updated.
