In the original article, the code in the supplementary material was written for Matlab 2014b. This code, used with the latest versions of Matlab, causes a startup error. An updated version of the code is provided in the updated supplementary material provided below.

The latest version of the supplementary material will be hosted at <https://github.com/EvaLeunissen/Whalength> to allow for easy updating of the Matlab code in the future. The authors apologize for this error and state that this does not change the scientific conclusions of the article in any way. The original article has been updated.
