Missing information in Acknowledgment Section

In the published article, there was an error regarding the acknowledgment section. Additional information needs to be added to this section. Rephrased acknowledgment as follows: “This research was conducted at the University of Denver (DU) as HF’s Ph.D. dissertation. The research was partially supported by the Autism gifts given to the DU by several family members. We would like to thank the families who donated to DU in support of this research as well as those families and their children who participated in this research. The publication cost was covered by the University of Denver (50%) and MOE Project of Humanities and Social Sciences (21YJCZH029) (50%).”

The authors apologize for this error and state that this does not change the scientific conclusions of the article in any way. The original article has been updated.
